DAY WISE ITINERARY OF THE TRIP:

Day 01: Arrive at Leh Airport 3505 meters / 11567 ft.

Arrive at Leh Airport and transfer to the Hotel. Complete rest for the first half. After lunch if suitable, visit the famous Shanti Stupa, Leh Palace and Leh Market.

Shanti Stupa: Shanti Stupa in Leh stands as a white-domed Buddhist Stupa built to promote world peace and prosperity. The unique structure and picturesque view of the surrounding areas make it a niche for photographers and a perfect place to meditate. Take the staircase for a fun and satisfying adventure. Shanti Stupa looks beautiful and serene in all seasons, especially when it snows. Let your curiosity lead you to this peaceful place that will mesmerize you with its beauty and calmness.

Leh Palace: The Leh Palace, a 17th-century former royal palace, is a central attraction in Leh. Modeled after the Potala Palace in Tibet, it houses a museum and prayer room. The palace's rooftop offers a sweeping view of Leh and the Zaskar mountains. Despite being partly in ruins, the palace still boasts ancient relics, paintings, utensils, and artefacts that are almost 450 years old. The palace is a sight to behold when lit up during special occasions like the Galdan Namchot festival. Under the Archaeological Survey of India, the palace is being renovated to preserve the history of the Namgyal dynasty in Leh.

Leh Main Market: The Leh Main Market is a vibrant and lively hub in Ladakh, offering a variety of products ranging from jewelry and clothing to groceries and local street food. With a fanciful arrangement of stores, shops, and stalls, the market is an attractive destination to browse and find items of your choice. Shopkeepers and sellers are easily accessible and eager to help you navigate the bustling market.

Day 02: Leh – Sangam - Hall of Fame - Magnetic Hill - Gurudwara Pathar Sahib

After breakfast, drive to a full day excursion to Sangam view where Indus & Zaskar river meets. You may opt for river rafting (own cost). After that visit Magnetic Hill: Magnetic Hill, situated on the Leh-Kargil Highway, is a remarkable stretch of road that seems to defy the laws of gravity. It's situated approximately 30 km from Leh City and is a must-see destination if you're on a trip in the area. What makes Magnetic Hill so popular among tourists is its ability to pull stationary vehicles towards it. Numerous tales and hypotheses have been linked to this peculiar phenomenon, which has transformed it into a must-visit location and a much-needed rest stop for weary travellers on the highway.

Gurudwara Pathar Sahib: Gurudwara Pathar Sahib holds great religious significance for Sikhs. It was constructed in 1517 to honor Guru Nanak's visit to Ladakh. According to legend, while meditating at this site, Guru Nanak was attacked by a demon who threw a boulder at him. Instead of harming him, the boulder turned soft upon touching his body, surprising the demon who then repented and promised to live a peaceful life. Today, the sacred rock is covered with a veil and enshrined in the gurdwara. Devotees are greeted by a white board containing holy verses and the Mool Mantra from the Guru Granth Sahib, the primary Sikh scripture.

Drive back to visit Spituk Monastery – home for the wish fulfilling Kali Mata and Hall of fame – a war memorial Museum. Overnight stay at a hotel in Leh.

Day 03: Leh - Nubra valley (via Khardongla Pass)

After a leisurely morning breakfast drive to Nubra valley (The valley of flowers) via Khardung la, (18,300 feet) considered as one of the highest motor able roads in the World. The view from top of the passes is amazing. One can see all the way south over the Indus valley to the seemingly endless peaks. After exploring we drive toward the down Hunder past an area of rolling sand dunes, one can see double hump Camels and visitors can take a camel safari (Own cost) here. Dinner and overnight stay in Nubra Valley.

Day 04: Full Day Excursion to Turtuk

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

After breakfast today, really important day and also a highly anticipated one visiting Turtuk Village, the last border village open to visitors before the Pakistan border. It must be one of the most under-rated locations in Ladakh. Turtuk was captured by Indian army in the year 1971 war from Pakistan. This village has a similar culture and language to Ladakhi. The religion of Turtuk is mostly Nurbakshi Muslim; some villages are Shai community. You will be stunned to notice the colour on various mountains. It just kept changing as you go along. Some mountains had multiple shades of brown, while some had a greenish tinge on the rocks. The winding roads, the green Shayok River and the colourful mountains will make your journey from Hunder to Turtuk one of the best of our trip. The scenery is especially amazing near Changmar village.

Day 05: Nubra Valley – Pangong Lake

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner

Today after breakfast, we shall drive to Pangong Lake via Shyok, Durbuk and Tangste villages.
